

Readers' Community Book Discussion Group

*For the comfort of all attending,
please come fragrance free.*

Fall Series

September 1
Suite Francaise
by Irene Nemirovsky

September 8
Living Juicy
by SARK

September 15
Shanghai Girls
by Lisa See

September 22
Meet the Author/Free Workshop
"A Woman & Herself"
Mara Purl

September 29
Meet the Author
Richard Taylor

October 6
Ghost Soldiers
by Hampton Sides

October 13
Animal, Vegetable, Miracle –
A Year of Food Life
by Barbara Kingsolver

October 20
The Known World
by Edward P. Jones

October 27
Meet the Author — Fishing for
Equilibrium: The Power of a
Diary – Kalila Volkov

November 3
Best Friends Forever
by Jennifer Weiner

November 10
A Deep Breath of Life – Daily
Inspiration for Heart-Centered
Living by Alan Cohen

November 17
The Catcher in the Rye
by J. D. Salinger

November 24
No book discussion this week
December 1
Sister Carrie
by Theodore Dreiser

December 8
Wishin' and Hopin' – A
Christmas Story by Wally Lamb

December 15
No Assigned Book/Potluck

*Author(s) will join us.
A free program sponsored by

Two novellas which follow the stories of men and women thrown together in circumstances beyond their control beginning in Paris on the eve of the Nazi occupation in 1940.

Living juicy is: jumping for joy on the inside. What can we learn by "living juicy" during this inspirational Wednesdays discussion?

The story takes readers on an adventure with two sisters beginning in 1937 Shanghai to the shores of America.

Join the author as she takes us on a journey of discovery by helping both men and women answer 4 key questions about what your heart knows, your goals, your secrets and your values.

Join us for this special 5th Wednesdays program in which the author reads from his various books and screenplays.

On January 28, 1945, 121 hand-selected U.S. Troops slipped behind enemy lines in the Philippines. Their mission: March 30 rugged miles to rescue 513 POW's. Read and discuss with us this spellbinding true story.

During this inspirational Wednesday's discussion we will follow the author and her family as they learn a hundred new ways to an old truth: we are what we eat. What can we learn from her family's journey?

This story weaves together the lives of freed and enslaved blacks, whites, and Indians – and allows readers a deeper understanding of the enduring multi-dimensional world created by the institution of slavery.

At our last 4th Wednesdays program of the year, join the author as she shares the power of journal writing and how it can inspire others.

This story is a grand, hilarious, edge-of-your-seat adventure; about betrayal and loyalty, family history and small-town secrets.

During this inspirational Wednesday's discussion, what can participants learn from this book of daily affirmations?

This influential and widely acclaimed story and perennially banned book details the two days in the life of 16-year-old Holden Caulfield after he has been expelled from prep school.

This novel published in 1900 is an epic of city life, of transient idealists besieged by industrialism and its anonymity. Join us for discussion of this amazing classic novel.

It's 1964 and 10-year-old Felix is sure of a few things. What can we learn from this story during this last Inspirational Wednesdays discussion of the year?

Bring a fiction, non-fiction or inspirational book to share that you have found especially interesting and/or informative. Please also bring your favorite dish to feed at least 8-10 people.

Members and Public Welcome!

Wednesdays • 10am – Noon
Morro Bay Library Program Room
625 Harbor St.

For more info contact Karen @ 772.9268 or wednesdays@morrobayfriendsofthelibrary.org or go to our website at: www.morrobayfriendsofthelibrary.org

Readers' Community Book Discussion Group

*For the comfort of all attending,
please come fragrance free.*

Fall Series

September 1
Suite Francaise
by Irene Nemirovsky

September 8
Living Juicy
by SARK

September 15
Shanghai Girls
by Lisa See

September 22
Meet the Author/Free Workshop
"A Woman & Herself"
Mara Purl

September 29
Meet the Author
Richard Taylor

October 6
Ghost Soldiers
by Hampton Sides

October 13
Animal, Vegetable, Miracle –
A Year of Food Life
by Barbara Kingsolver

October 20
The Known World
by Edward P. Jones

October 27
Meet the Author — Fishing for
Equilibrium: The Power of a
Diary – Kalila Volkov

November 3
Best Friends Forever
by Jennifer Weiner

November 10
A Deep Breath of Life – Daily
Inspiration for Heart-Centered
Living by Alan Cohen

November 17
The Catcher in the Rye
by J. D. Salinger

November 24
No book discussion this week
December 1
Sister Carrie
by Theodore Dreiser

December 8
Wishin' and Hopin' – A
Christmas Story by Wally Lamb

December 15
No Assigned Book/Potluck

*Author(s) will join us.
A free program sponsored by

Two novellas which follow the stories of men and women thrown together in circumstances beyond their control beginning in Paris on the eve of the Nazi occupation in 1940.

Living juicy is: jumping for joy on the inside. What can we learn by "living juicy" during this inspirational Wednesdays discussion?

The story takes readers on an adventure with two sisters beginning in 1937 Shanghai to the shores of America.

Join the author as she takes us on a journey of discovery by helping both men and women answer 4 key questions about what your heart knows, your goals, your secrets and your values.

Join us for this special 5th Wednesdays program in which the author reads from his various books and screenplays.

On January 28, 1945, 121 hand-selected U.S. Troops slipped behind enemy lines in the Philippines. Their mission: March 30 rugged miles to rescue 513 POW's. Read and discuss with us this spellbinding true story.

During this inspirational Wednesday's discussion we will follow the author and her family as they learn a hundred new ways to an old truth: we are what we eat. What can we learn from her family's journey?

This story weaves together the lives of freed and enslaved blacks, whites, and Indians – and allows readers a deeper understanding of the enduring multi-dimensional world created by the institution of slavery.

At our last 4th Wednesdays program of the year, join the author as she shares the power of journal writing and how it can inspire others.

This story is a grand, hilarious, edge-of-your-seat adventure; about betrayal and loyalty, family history and small-town secrets.

During this inspirational Wednesday's discussion, what can participants learn from this book of daily affirmations?

This influential and widely acclaimed story and perennially banned book details the two days in the life of 16-year-old Holden Caulfield after he has been expelled from prep school.

This novel published in 1900 is an epic of city life, of transient idealists besieged by industrialism and its anonymity. Join us for discussion of this amazing classic novel.

It's 1964 and 10-year-old Felix is sure of a few things. What can we learn from this story during this last Inspirational Wednesdays discussion of the year?

Bring a fiction, non-fiction or inspirational book to share that you have found especially interesting and/or informative. Please also bring your favorite dish to feed at least 8-10 people.

Members and Public Welcome!

Wednesdays • 10am – Noon
Morro Bay Library Program Room
625 Harbor St.

For more info contact Karen @ 772.9268 or wednesdays@morrobayfriendsofthelibrary.org or go to our website at: www.morrobayfriendsofthelibrary.org