

Ways and Means 2009 End of the Year Report

The Ways and Means Committee and its volunteers had a very busy and productive year in 2009. It is a tribute to the hard work of many people over the last 12 months that made this our most successful fundraising year ever.

The breakdown:

Book Sales: Our quarterly book sales were bigger and better than ever, netting almost $14,000.

Farmer's Market: In addition, our booth at the Morro Bay Saturday Farmer's Market contributed almost $1,700. Thanks Torrey!

Lobby Sales: Having books and magazines for sale in the library lobby has been another ongoing source of revenue, to the tune of $4,600.

Internet: Ric Deschler's online presence garnered another $700 through Craigslist.

Book and Author Event: Finally, our appearance at the Book and Author Festival in October added another $240 to the coffers.

The combined efforts of many dedicated people brought in a total of 21093.99 in fundraising activities in 2009.

Thanks everyone, and let's hope for another good year in 2010.
